No

There are two ways you can participate in Heritage BC's 2020 conference:

Sign up for one of our suggested topics (our proposed workshop topics can be found here)

Or tell us about a workshop you would like to present.

Select how you would like to participate at the 2020 conference:*

- I would like to join one of the suggested topics.
- I would like to propose a workshop that I want to present.

Title of your presentation (working or final)

In two or three sentences, provide a précis describing the content/message/theme of your presentation. What information do you wish to convey?*

Please provide an abstract (more detail) about your presentation. (You may attach information using the link below.)*

Describe how your proposed presentation ties into the theme of the conference - The Culture of Heritage: Place and Space. As expressed in the conference description, we are interested in proposals that connect to our broad theme of place and space and that specifically explore best practices and innovations of conservation, environment interpretation and protection, social and cultural cohesion, and climate change action.*

Please let us know about your panel or co-presenters. Have they been confirmed? As noted in the conference information, we are interested in proposals that connect to our broad theme of place and space and that specifically explore best practices and innovations of conservation, environment interpretation and protection, social and cultural cohesion, and climate change action. Emphasis will be given to those proposals that include panels of two or more individuals.*

Provide a biography or describe yourself (or attach a biography/CV using the following link)*

Describe the format of the presentation (single presenter, panel, roundtable, etc).*

What requirements will you need for your presentation (e.g. room setup specifics, technology, flipcharts, etc).

Use this link to upload file(s) that support your submission.

Please use this space for final comments (as required).
